Act XLII of 1999

on the Protection of Non-Smokers and Certain Regulations on the Consumption and Distribution of Tobacco Products

The Parliament,

- considering the adverse general health indicators of the Hungarian population,
- in order to reduce the accessibility of tobacco products for minors through a partial restriction of the distribution of such products,
- expressing its intent to afford protection to non-smokers as well as to people otherwise in need of increased protection on account of their age or health status, against the negative impacts of passive smoking by regulating the consumption of tobacco products primarily in public places,
- moreover, recognising that the regulation on the protection of non-smokers has to be reviewed from time to time - in parallel with the spreading of attitudes of health awareness - in order for the state to provide protection in additional areas of the private sphere against the adverse impacts of passive smoking,
- laying particular emphasis - while respecting the rights relating to private life - on the need for avoiding smoking in particular in the presence of minors, pregnant women, people of ill health or persons of restricted mobility for any reason, in the venues of private life as well, particularly in rooms of closed air space or in the closed passenger compartments of motor vehicles since tobacco smoke is always poisonous and it has no safe health limit value,
- contribution thereby to the enforcement and exercising and protection of the constitutional rights to health and a healthy environment,
